Ms. Gallo is a graduate of Villanova University where she received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science, with a concentration in Pre-Law and a minor in Philosophy. Ms. Gallo received her Juris Doctorate from Seton Hall University School of Law. Following law school, Ms. Gallo served as the law clerk to the Honorable R. Benjamin Cohen, Presiding Judge, Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Essex County (Ret.). Prior to joining O'Toole Scrivo, Ms. Gallo was Of Counsel at an Am Law200 firm where she represented corporations and individuals in a variety of high stakes matters. Ms. Gallo's practice concentrates in the areas of commercial litigation, business litigation, corporate divorce, probate litigation, estate administration, guardianship matters, local government law and general equity matters. She has significant experience representing a variety of clients in federal and state trial and appellate courts, as well as in private arbitration. A vast majority of Ms. Gallo's practice involves emergent and expedited business litigation. She is also routinely appointed by courts in probate and guardianship matters.

Ms. Gallo serves in several leadership positions within the New Jersey State Bar Association, including as a Member of the Board of Trustees, Co-Chair of the Equity Jurisprudence Committee, and a Member of the Judicial Administration Committee. In addition, Ms. Gallo is a former Master of the Brennan-Vanderbilt Inn of Court, a former Trustee of the Essex County Bar Association, and past Chair of the Essex County Bar Association, Young Lawyers' Section.

In April 2009, Ms. Gallo was presented with the Young Lawyers' Section Achievement Award by the Essex County Bar Association. Ms. Gallo regularly lectures at seminars presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, New Jersey State Bar Association and Essex County Bar Association regarding Chancery practice, business litigation, and professionalism.
